

The Week Ahead
Morgantown High School
Week of October 25, 2020

Welcome to the overall learning guide to Morgantown High School. A new Edition will be updated weekly to alert our students and families on what to expect for the upcoming week at MHS.

Monongalia County has been designated as a county who can deliver In-Person Instruction by the WVDHHR color coded metric.

Impact on Morgantown High School

- MHS will have the same school class schedule for the second week in a row.
- In-Person Instruction with MCS Distance Remote learning simultaneously will occur Monday through Thursday this week.
- Fridays will continue to be remote learning for all students. MHS will be running a full eight period class schedule.
- Sporting events and extracurricular activities will continue at Morgantown High School.
- Any full time MCS Distance students or students who are in remote learning can continue to request lunch from the school by using the following link (Click here). Students in the building can bring their own lunch or one will be provided to them.

Continued Expectations for Students In-Person/Hybrid Learning

- Our campus opens for students at 7:05 am. Please plan accordingly and do not be on campus earlier than that time. All students should be in their homerooms or the cafeteria eating breakfast no later than 7:15 am.
- All students will be required to wear face coverings at all times (School Bus, Class Transitions, In-Class Instruction, etc.). Students will be able to remove face coverings when eating in designated zones during breakfast and lunch times.
- All students must bring their fully charged Chromebook to school with them each day.
- All students must complete their Online “REQUIRED DAILY Self-Screening” prior to entering the school bus or school building. The screening tool can be found at the top of our website or click here for the link.
- All students will move quickly and directly to transition from class to class. There will be no loitering in the hallways to maximize social distancing.
- All students and families must use Schoology to check and confirm progress in classes. If any parent wishes to contact a faculty member, you may either use Schoology or find their email at the following link: <https://mohigans.mono.k12.wv.us/2/staff>
